The CGA, CWGA and CJGA honored more than 100 of the year's top performers Sunday at the Colorado Golf Awards Brunch at Pinehurst Country Club in Denver.

Among those saluted were the players of the year, headed by Zakhai Brown (CGA) and Somin Lee (CWGA). Brown, a senior on the Colorado State University golf team, staged a big final-round comeback to win the CGA Stroke Play Championship. Lee, a freshman on the Pepperdine University golf team, claimed the CWGA Match Play title, defeating CWGA Stroke Play champion Brooke Collins in the final.

-- CWGA Player of the Year: After two straight years of being CWGA Junior Player of the Year, Lee graduated to the association's top player honor regardless of age. In winning the CWGA Match Play, the Denver-based golfer defeated Collins -- winner of the 2011 CWGA Stroke Play -- in the finals at CommonGround Golf Course.

Lee (pictured at left) also was the low amateur finisher in the HealthOne Colorado Women's Open, sharing sixth place overall. And she was medalist in U.S. Women's Amateur Public Links qualifying and made it to the round of 32 at the national tournament.
